PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Hao Xu, is the primary applicant of an I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, filed with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”).

3. Defendant, Alberto Gonzales, is the Attorney General of the United States and this action is brought against him in his official capacity. He is authorized to adjust to permanent residence status certain aliens who have been admitted to the United States, and is further authorized to delegate such powers to other government officials. Defendant Gonzales is also the head of the Department of Justice, which is the government agency responsible for the FBI name checks.

4. Defendant, Michael Chertoff, is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”), and this action is brought against him in his official capacity. Defendant Chertoff is generally charged with enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act, which provides for the processing of adjustment of status applications.

5. Defendant, Emilio T. Gonzalez, is the Director of USCIS, and this action is brought against him in his official capacity. USCIS is an agency within the DHS to which DHS' authority has, in part, been delegated. Defendant Director is generally charged with the overall administration of immigration benefits and services.

JURISDICTION

6. Jurisdiction in this case is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1361, 5 U.S.C. §§ 551, et seq. and 701, et seq., and 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq. Relief is requested pursuant to said statutes. Additionally, attorney fees and costs will be sought pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d) and 5 U.S.C. § 504 et seq.

VENUE

7. Venue is proper in this honorable Court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(e), in that Plaintiff may request a hearing on the matter in the district where Plaintiff resides.

INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

8. This lawsuit should be assigned to the San Jose Division of this court because a substantial part of the event or omission which give rise to this lawsuit occurred in Santa Clara

1 County.

2 EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

3 9. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies. The Plaintiff has supplied USCIS
4 and the FBI with documents that clearly establish his eligibility to register as a permanent
5 resident, and as will be demonstrated by the evidence, has followed up with numerous inquiries
6 and requests to the pertinent administrative agencies attempting to expedite his delayed
7 application.

8 CAUSE OF ACTION

9 10. Plaintiff's I-485 application, filing fees, along with all supporting documentation, was 10 filed with the USCIS California Service Center, on July 13, 2004. (EXHIBIT 1)

11 11. On January 6, 2007, Plaintiff wrote to U.S. Congressman Michael M. Honda requesting
12 assistance with his stalled application. In a letter dated March 22, 2007, Congressman Honda
13 replied to Plaintiff stating that his name check was received by the FBI on July 28, 2004, and that
14 it was still pending. (EXHIBIT 2)

15 12. In a letter dated January 17, 2007, Plaintiff received a response to his Freedom of 16 Information-Privacy Acts ("FOIPA") request. David M. Hardy, Section Chief of the Records
17 Management Division of the FBI, indicated that there were no records responsive to Plaintiff's
18 FOIPA request. (EXHIBIT 3)

19 13. Plaintiff made an Infopass appointment at the USCIS San Jose sub-office on June 7, 2007,
20 to inquire into the status of his case. At the appointment, Plaintiff was given a printed case status
21 sheet, which indicates that his case is still pending due to the FBI name check. (EXHIBIT 4)

22 14. It has been nearly three years since Plaintiff first filed his I-485 application with USCIS
23 on July 13, 2004. The Defendants have failed to properly adjudicate this petition within a
24 reasonable time. They have improperly and unreasonably delayed the processing of Plaintiff's I-
25 485 application after Plaintiff has paid for, and submitted, a properly executed application.

26 15. Although the role of Defendants is pivotal to the security of the United States of America,
27 the Defendants' actions have gone well beyond the expected 6-8 months processing time for the 28 adjudication of an I-485 Application (Please see California Service Center processing dates for I-

1 485 cases posted June 18, 2007 at (EXHIBIT 5). Defendants have failed to adhere to their own
2 processing times and procedures.

3 16. Defendants have sufficient information to determine Plaintiff's eligibility pursuant to the 4 applicable requirements and complete the processing procedures.

5 17. After numerous inquiries by Plaintiff, Defendants have unreasonably and inappropriately
6 refused to adjudicate the petitions, thereby depriving Plaintiff of the rights to which he is 7 entitled.

8 18. Plaintiff has been greatly damaged by the failure of Defendants to act in accordance with 9 their duties under the law. Specifically:

10 (a) Plaintiff has been unable to obtain legal permanent residence and thus cannot
11 travel or work without restriction. He must pay additional filing fees each
12 year in order to work and travel legally.

13 (b) Plaintiff is unable to accrue time to be eligible for naturalization as a citizen of 14 the United States, thus delaying his obtainment of the rights and privileges
15 enjoyed by citizens of the United States.

16 19. Defendants in violation of the Administrative Procedures Act at 5 U.S.C. § 706(1), are
17 unlawfully withholding action on Plaintiff's application, and have unreasonably delayed action
18 on Plaintiff's case.

19 20. Defendants in violation of the Administrative Procedures Act at 5 U.S.C. § 555(b), are 20 unlawfully delaying action on Plaintiff's application and have failed to complete the adjudicative
21 functions delegated to them by law within a reasonable time.

22 21. Plaintiff has provided sufficient evidence of his attempts to secure adjudication of the 23 Application at issue, all to no avail. His administrative remedies have been exhausted.
24 Accordingly, the Plaintiff has been forced to retain the services of an attorney to pursue the 25 instant action.

26 PRAYER

27 22. WHEREFORE, in view of the arguments and authority noted herein, Plaintiff
28 respectfully prays that the Defendants be cited to appear herein and that, upon due consideration,

1 the Court enter an order:

2 (a) requiring Defendants to adjudicate Plaintiff's I-485 applications forthwith;

3 (b) awarding reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act; and

4 (c) granting such other relief at law and in equity as justice may require.

Subject: Ask help on our immigration petition.

Dear Congressman,

Our immigration petition of I-485 'Adjustment of Status' is in pending now for more than 2.5 years as I submitted it in July 2004. At the same time, our whole immigration process already took 6 years.

A lot of my friends, relatives, even submitted at similar time or even way later than us, already got their GC and even citizenship. However, our cases are just hanging around. I may guess it is in the FBI name check and I may not know when it would be over at all.

You may know, without the GC, how inconvenience the life is for my daughters, my wife and me comparing to other relatives and friends.

For example, we had to postpone our purchase of house, a place called home for more than 2 years; Sometimes, I may have to concern to bring my daughter back to hometown later if we have to go home back, who does even not know anything about that since she was born here/live here; My wife and I have to work to keep the legal status just in case even though we really want to spend more our daytime with our daughters but not send them to daycare. There are a lot of other issues.

Could you help us to check what my current status is? If my name check is cleared out or not. What would be estimated timeframe for my case after this 6 year process already? Your help will be really really appreciated.

March 22, 2007

Dear Mr. Xu:

Thank you for contacting my office regarding your immigration petition. I am sorry to hear about the difficulties you are experiencing with your FBI name check. According to my Liaison at the FBI, "Mr. Hao Xu's request was received from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services on July 28, 2004, and is currently in process. Ms. Feng Zhao's request was received from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) on July 28, 2004. This submission was processed and finalized on February 8, 2005. The results were forwarded to the USCIS Headquarters, Washington, D.C."

The FBI processes millions of name check requests each year with each requiring thoughtful consideration. According to the FBI, the name check process is administered by the National Name Check Program and involves several layers of review. The FBI's homeland security mission requires that the name check process be primarily focused on an accurate and thorough result. Before a name check is completed, it may require review by federal, state, local and foreign agencies. In addition to serving as a reviewing agency, the FBI is the clearinghouse for responses by other agencies. Delays and/or complications may arise due to a common name, spelling variations, frequent travel or changes in residency, criminal history, non-cooperation of foreign governments, multiple references, and inconsistent or incomplete information. In some cases, name checks require further investigation or detailed review.

According to the FBI, additional staff has been added to process the backlog caused by the tremendous volume of name check requests. However, if the delay is the result of another agency or a case requires more extensive review, the FBI cannot proceed with final processing. Unfortunately, some investigations take many months to complete.

Since 2002, USCIS has increased the number and scope of relevant background checks, processing millions of security checks without incident. These security checks are done for all cases involving a petition or application for an immigration service or benefit. USCIS works closely with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and other agencies to complete the background checks. The FBI name check is just one part of this process. Included with this letter is a USCIS Fact Sheet on Immigration Security Checks - How and Why the Process Works. This fact sheet may answer additional questions you may have about the entire security screening process.

I know how important this information is to you; however, the FBI must also balance the need for national security in preparing the response to each of these requests. While an exact date for completion of this review cannot be given be assured that the results will be made available to the immigration authorities as quickly as possible. Please understand that my office can only inquire regarding the status of your name check and where the FBI has submitted the results. My office cannot request that the process be expedited or waived, nor can my office inquire regarding the specific findings of the FBI or any other investigative agency. Once my office has verified that your name check is under active review, there is no further action to be taken.

I regret that my office could not provide a more favorable response at this time. However, I hope you will find this information useful.

Sincerely,

Michael U. Honda

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services California Service Center Service Center Processing Dates Posted June 18, 2007

Notice: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has improved the reporting procedure for processing times of immigration benefit applications. In the past, USCIS benefit processing reports indicated the specific type of applications or petitions that were being processed and the date the cases were received. However, the date the case was received did not provide a clear indication of when USCIS expected to complete the case, nor did it provide a clear indication of USCIS' commitment to process cases within a certain cycle time. It also did not align with the processing times and cycle times the agency reports in other contexts.

This improved reporting procedure is an effort to give our customers more accurate information that better reflects current processing time and USCIS service level commitments. Effective immediately, when we are completing applications and petitions within our service level goals we will report that as the processing time. For example, when our service level goal is to process a particular kind of case within six months, and if our processing time is six months or less, we will show a date consistent with our service level goal because that reflects our commitment.

When we are not meeting our service level goal, the date posted will reflect the filing date of cases that are being completed. It should be noted that while in some instances reported processing dates may appear to have regressed due to this change, they do not reflect a lengthening of USCIS processing times, but simply the change in reporting. Our goal is to provide accurate projections and thus give customers clear expectations as to what they can expect as a processing time.

There are several important exceptions to the processing times shown below:

- Case processing will be delayed if we must ask you for more evidence or information. If we ask for missing required initial evidence, count the processing time from when we receive that missing evidence.
- The case processing timeframe will start over if a customer doesn't appear for an interview or asks that it be rescheduled.

What if I have a problem or have questions about a case?

We offer a variety of services after you file. For example, for most kinds of cases you can check the status of your case online.

For more information about when and how to contact us, whether your case is outside our processing time or if there are other issues, please see our fact sheet –

Case Services - How do I... know what kind of services are available to me after I file my application or petition?

One additional point about these projections. They are the time to complete processing and mail the actual notice and/or document. If you check case status online and see that your case has been approved, and you haven't yet received your approval notice or document in the mail, we ask that you wait thirty days from the approval date before contacting us. That is because it may take that long before it is returned to us as undeliverable. You can also print the case status online answer for your records.
